

Michael Haves

is a Composer, songwriter, musician and producer that creates and performs music across various genres and media, including bands, theater, film, radio, and dance. He also writes lyrics in german and english.

He studied Double Bass at Hochschule für Musik Hanns Eisler and was a part of the vibrant Berlin jazz scene of the early 2000s during which he toured and won several awards with various bands. His focus then shifted to songwriting and production, spending a decade touring the world with his alternative pop band Super700. He furthermore expanded his musical repertoire, creating compositions for theater, film, and radio plays. From 2011 to 2015, he worked in Kosovo, collaborating with numerous local artists.

Currently, he operates from his studio, THE COP SHOP, located in the heart of Prenzlauer Berg. He focuses on writing and producing for theater plays and various artists. He also co-leads projects such as German jazz award nominated Brigade Futur III and the Swiss National Jazz Youth Orchestra, alongside his long-time collaborator Benjamin Weidekamp.

In addition to this, he continues to produce, mix, and master music for others, contributing to projects that have collectively amassed nearly 30 million plays in alternative and jazz music.
